Dear Sarah,

I wanted to write to you to thank you for the excellent work that you have done for me (and Ruth) on two completely different holidays.

One was a summer villa break the other a weekend city break. Both times all elements of the holiday from the flights to the accommodation were booked independently but were all excellent and efficient.

All we did was tell you what we wanted and then choose from a selection of properties that you recommended and you did the rest and everything just appeared. It was superb even down to the writing of the luggage labels.

We always recommend you to everyone and will always use you for our travel needs

Thank you
